

Welcome to the Memorial Page For
Joseph Lawrence Walter Gagnon

August 23, 1925 ~ December 12, 2017

Joseph L. W. Gagnon, known to friends as “Bill” passed away Tuesday, December 12, 2017 with his family by his side. He was a lifelong resident of Lawrence and attended the former Ecole St. Joseph of St. Anne’s Parish and was a graduate of Lawrence High School, class of 1943.

Upon graduating, he enlisted in the US Navy and was sent to Newport, RI for basic training. He continued his training at Jacksonville, FL in aviation radio, radar, and gunnery. After being assigned to Air Glory Six, he then reported to Deland, FL for operational training in SBD aircraft. He was sent to San Diego, CA and on to Alameda to Bombing Six. He soon went to Pearl Harbor where he started flying in a Navy dive-bomber, SB2C Helldiver. He was assigned to the USS Hancock, a Navy carrier. He made his first raid on Kyushu, Japan. His ship was hit by a Kamikaze suicide plane resulting in twenty-nine bodies found but two hundred missing. He was awarded the Air Medal and Gold Stars for a second, third, and fourth air medal. Late in life, he was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. In March, 1946 he was discharged from the US Navy and in 1948 he became a member of the Lawrence Fire Department, retiring after thirty-six years of service.

Mr. Gagnon is survived by his wife, Lorraine (Boutin) Gagnon; son, John and his wife Nicola of Little Compton, RI; daughter, Laurie McCadden and her husband Thomas of Arlington. He was the cherished grandfather of Hallie and Timothy McCadden and Benjamin and Luke Gagnon.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend visiting hours on Thursday, December 14, 2017 from 5:00-8:00 PM at Cataudella Funeral Home, 126 Pleasant Valley St., Methuen. His funeral mass will be held at 11:00 AM on Friday, December 15, 2017 at St. Patrick Church, 118 South Broadway, Lawrence. Burial will follow at Sacred Heart Cemetery, Andover. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Merrimack Valley Hospice, c/o High Pointe House, 360 North Ave., Haverhill, MA 01830.
